

SARAH N. WILSON L.A.C

Acupuncturist/Educator

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

1991-2014 Acupuncturist Minneapolis, MN
Private Practice

Treatment methods include acupuncture, electro-acupuncture, moxibustion, acupressure, and herbs.

1993-2003 Minnesota Indian Women's Resource Center Minneapolis, MN
Educator, Acupuncturist

Created a wellness center which utilized acupuncture, acupressure, herbs and educational tools to benefit women and children who participated in the Resource Center's programs.

Provided information about wellness, holistic health and prevention to rural Native American communities.

2005 Shakopee Women's Correctional Facility Shakopee, MN
Acupuncturist

Operated the acupuncture program for the chemical dependency programs.

1989-2003 Served as an acupuncturist at these facilities:

Health Partners Mental Health Facility, St. Paul Drug and Alcohol addiction

United Hospital Pain Clinic, St. Paul Pain management

Health Recovery Center, Minneapolis Drug and alcohol addiction.

Crocus Hill Health Center, St. Paul General health

Quan Yin Healing Arts Clinic, San Francisco HIV patients

Golden Gate Acupuncture Clinic, San Francisco Low income and homeless patients

Market Street Clinic, San Francisco General medicine patients

EDUCATION

2007-2009 Goddard College Plainfield, VT

BA, Health Arts and Science

2008 Salt Institute for Documentary Studies Portland, ME

Radio documentary training intensive

1987-2001 San Francisco College of Acupuncture San Francisco, CA

MA, Traditional Chinese Medicine

TEACHING ACTIVITIES

- Taught auricular acupuncture at Northwestern Health Sciences University, taught National Acupuncture Exam Prep courses.
- Active Tai Chi practice since 1980: Guang Ping Yang style long form
- Organized and taught many workshops and lectures regarding preventative health measures, traditional Chinese Medicine, Tai Chi and Qi Gong